Maison de ville 762 Saint-Girons

Crossing house in the town center, semi-detached on two sides, approximately 137 m<sup>2</sup> of living space on three levels with the possibility of creating three apartments. It consists of an entrance hall and three rooms on the ground floor; upstairs, a landing, a kitchen (new water heater), three rooms (including a dining room and a living room), and a shower room. On the second floor, there is a landing, an old kitchen, and two bedrooms. There is an attic above. From the other street, it is accessed through a garage. Part of the house is co-owned only because one of the garages was sold. Exemption from DPE because there is no longer a heating system (previously, there were electric radiators) Ideal first investment (seasonal or traditional rental)
